

RECLAIMING THE WHOLE PERSON

A faith-informed pathway from inner fragmentation to relational flourishing

OUR MISSION To educate, empower, and encourage individuals, families, and communities to recognize and respond to psychological, emotional, and spiritual distress through education, research, counseling, and collaboration.

FEATURED OXFORD RESEARCH INITIATIVE

Operationalizing the Tripartite Construct of Soul, Spirit, and Mind

A mixed-methods psychometric validation program advancing a culturally responsive, whole-person assessment framework.

BODY

Lived experience, health, function, and environmental context

SOUL

Cognition, emotion, volition, identity, and relational capacity

SPIRIT

Meaning, moral orientation, faith, purpose, and transcendence

THE MODEL IN PRACTICE

Three relational dimensions

- Relationship with self
- Relationship with others
- Relationship with God / the transcendent

Nine virtue domains

Love · Joy · Peace · Patience · Kindness · Goodness · Faithfulness · Gentleness · Self-control

Intended applications

- Early identification of spiritual and relational distress
- Whole-person screening and referral support
- Outcome measurement for counseling and community programs
- Research across chronic illness, aging, and underserved populations

ASSESSMENT SUITE UNDER DEVELOPMENT

TAT™

Initial whole-person screening

TSIA™

Deeper tripartite integration assessment

RIRIS™

Risk, referral, and intervention support
